

2009 Ann Griffel Scholarship Information

- All Iowa high school girls are eligible to apply
- All applicants must be intending to graduate from high school in the year of application (this could be either spring graduation or graduation at half year)
- Applicants must meet entrance requirements and plan to enroll at any accredited state or private school in Iowa
- This award is made for the freshman year of college only and does not repeat as new winners will be selected each spring from among the applicants of that year
- If winners do not attend college in the fall following high school graduation, an alternate candidate will be selected
- If winners do not attend an accredited state or private school in the state of Iowa, an alternate candidate will be selected
- The $1,500 scholarship will be paid to the Registrar of the University or College ($750 will be applied to college expenses at the beginning of the fall and spring semester or term)
- Announcements of the scholarship winners will be made at the time of the IWGA Junior Girls' Championship in June of each year
- Incomplete or late applications will not be considered
- Questions? Please contact Julie Buch at 515 331-3603 or jbuch@iowagolf.org
